

KENNETH TIMMERMAN

HILLARY BENGHAZI BOMBSHELL!

New book proves she scrambled to cover her butt while embassy was still under attack

Timmerman in his new book, "Deception: The Making of The YouTube Video Hillary and Obama Blamed for Benghazi." "Hillary had received obtained advanced galleys of the book, which reveal that the then-Secretary of State circled the wagons to create a cover story even as Americans were being fired upon in the attack!

"Hillary went into classic Clinton response mode and worked out 'How do we blame someone else?' And that was while the gunfire was still raging!" Timmerman revealed.

Timmerman combed through hundreds of pages of documents from the Benghazi Select Committee and Hillary's own private emails, and discovered the truth that her first instinct was self-preservation!

"She gathered her team and hatched an action plan to cover her negligence instead of reacting to save the Americans who were under fire as they met," Timmerman told The ENQUIRER.

One of her consultants, Sidney Blumenthal, suggested using "The Innocence of Muslims," a film that contains a reference to the prophet Mohammed as a "child molester," as the reason the Libyan mob attacked the embassy.

"It had only come to his attention because a TV station in Cairo had broadcast it and someone had just tweeted the State Department's Twitter account to ask what it was about," Timmerman said.

Blumenthal issued a memo blaming the film for inciting demonstrations on the U.S. posts in Tripoli and Benghazi earlier in the day before the evening ambush.

According to Timmerman, intelligence documents prove those demonstrations never took place!

By 10:08 p.m., Hillary released a statement blaming the video for the violence. An hour later, she sent an HILLARY Clinton spent critical hours during the deadly terrorist attack on our diplomatic mission in Libya engineering an elaborate cover-up to save herself — rather than trying to save American lives!

That's just one outrageous revelation made by award-winning investigative reporter Kenneth R.

hundreds of security warnings from the State Department before the attack," Timmerman, a political activist and former Maryland congressional candidate, exclusively told The National ENQUIRER.

"When it happened, she realized she was responsible and went into full cover-up mode."

The ENQUIRER has

10 REASONS CLINTON SHOULD NEVER BE PRESIDENT

1 She's shown her inability to be Commander-in-Chief. Very few potential presidents have a dry run. Benghazi offered Hillary such a test and she flunked.

self-congratulatory fake stories about herself. She said she was named after Mt. Everest hero Sir Edmund Hillary — but she was born before he was famous. She's talked about her involvement first woman president, she will commit us to endless overseas military interventions.

4 She favors the Muslim Brotherhood, a terrorist it; she negotiated the TPP free trade giveaway to Asia and now she opposes it;

a felony — and said a phony purchaser was buying land to conceal the real buyer. She lied under oath about the travel office firings. She took bribes — disguised as speaking fees — to sell out American interests.

7 She is paranoid and secretive. She

Hillary cared more about protecting her own reputation than about protecting the lives of Americans demonstrations on the U.S. posts in Tripoli and Benghazi earlier in the day before the evening ambush.

According to Timmerman, intelligence documents prove those demonstrations never took place!

By 10:08 p.m., Hillary released a statement blaming the video for the violence. An hour later, she sent an email on her PRIVATE server to her daughter, Chelsea — admitting the opposite to be true!

"Two of our officers were killed in Benghazi by an al Qaeda-like group," Hillary wrote.

Timmerman said: "This is a lie that cost American lives! Hillary Clinton is not fit to be Commander-in-Chief!" we

a felony — and said a phony purchaser was buying land to conceal the real buyer. She lied under oath about the travel office firings. She took bribes — disguised as speaking fees — to sell out American interests.

7 She is paranoid and secretive. She maintained a private email she can't understand the average person's concerns.

9 On the economy, she's stupid. Never in her life has she focused on economic issues. She has no experience and very little knowledge. On the two major issues of our times — terrorism and economy — she is totally unqualified.

ENQUIRER READERS HEARD IT FIRST!

GOP CONVENTION THEMES CAME RIGHT FROM THESE PAGES

THERE was plenty of talk about plagiarism at the Republican National Convention — and it sure sounded like they ripped a few pages right out of The National ENQUIRER!

There were attacks on Hillary Clinton for her lies to the FBI, the leak of classified emails from her illegal server and her Benghazi blunders — all stories ENQUIRER readers found in this publication!

There was defiant Ted Cruz — getting booted off the stage by angry Trump supporters — and disgraced doctor Ben Carson calling for unity. Earlier ENQUIRER investigations revealed ugly details about both of those wannabes and they quickly dropped from the race.

The Donald himself took the stage to outline his plan for America — something he told ENQUIRER readers about exclusively on these pages months ago!

The GOP nominee took a few minutes to praise this magazine for hard-hitting journalism during the campaign and he wondered why THE ENQUIRER...

"Don't think The National ENQUIRER doesn't have high-level sources."

This is no surprise to our readers who know The ENQUIRER chases the big stories and is not afraid to tell the truth!

